WEEKLY PRAYER FOCUS

- Heavenly Father, we thank You for who you are - merciful, gracious and just.
- Oh Lord, let every situation of life that is battling with me and intimidating me, arise in your mercy and fight for me.
- Oh Lord, strengthen every believer that is facing fierce battle and is on the verge of giving up. Oh Lord, do not let them give up.
- Battles that are mocking us like Sennacherib, oh Lord, destroy them in Jesus name.
- In this new month and new week, open my eyes to opportunities that will propel me to greater heights in Jesus name.
- Pray for the families of Clement Ifeoma & Erinwusi Lawrence.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Praise Rather than Pride

How do you handle success or achievement? Do you automatically expect to receive credit, acclaim or acknowledgment for all that has been accomplished and even engineer ways to ensure that you get them? David celebrated his victory over his enemies oppression by praising the Lord for deliverance not by claiming that he himself had achieved it (Ps. 18:46-50). He gave the glory to God.

Are there situations in your world that tempt you to take all the credit for outcomes rather than giving glory to God? In what ways might you give Him a gift of praise or thanksgiving?

— Thomas Nelson

WORD FOR THE WEEK

Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

— Psalm 100:4-5
