PASTOR'S CORNER

Being raised to be responsible and respectful involves a holistic approach that integrates parental, church, educational, societal and personal development. By nurturing values such as integrity empathy, accountability, and ethical decision making, individuals can embody responsible behavior in their interactions with others and their contributions to society. We should remember that if we are not raising our children in the way of the Lord they will not be responsible and respectful. The world we paid daily for the negligence of our responsibility.

WEEKLY PRAYER FOCUS

- Give thanks to God for making you a living soul.
- Appreciate God for being there for you at all times.
