PASTOR'S CORNER

Peaceful Coexistence: an Imperative for Collective Harmony. Ephesians 5:21; 6:1-4

Achieving peaceful coexistence for collective harmony is a function of intentionality. You have to be intentional about creating a home where peace of God reigns. You must be intentional about turning your problems to opportunities, appreciating that you are not the only family having challenges and that others too with similar or even bigger challenges are just managing theirs and have decided to still succeed instead of working towards shipwrecking their relationship or marriage.

Your spouse is the best partner that God has given you. Do not think that the field is greener on the other side of the field and that you can jump ship and decamp at will like politicians who have no serious-minded ideologies.

Shalom!

- Reverend Ope Amusan
